Monday afternoon Prof. Crawley's farmers slugged the business men of this town shamefully in a ball game on the school diamond, the score being as many as you please to five. A large crowd was present and enjoyed the game and it must be said to the credit of our business fellows that they stuck to the job manfully and the real play of the game is credited Martin Luther Earman the ice man, who made a double play. The business men, too stiff to kick, are ready for another game soon.

Mrs. Emma C. Hancock

This splendid woman died at her home here this morning in the 69th year of her age. About three and one-half months ago she suffered a stroke of paralysis from which she never recovered. She was tenderly nursed and eminent physicians attended her, but her constitution yielded to the shock and her spirit took its flight this morning, while her family, who had been on the watch for improvement stood by.

The deceased was a daughter of the late A. A LeGrand, one of the old prominent families of Virginia, and was reared and married here.

In December 1871, at the old LeGrand homestead she was happily married to Chas. W Hancock, who survives her together with the following children: C. A. Hancock, Mrs Lillie Gregory, and Miss Naomi Hancock, of this place and E d. Hancock, of Lynchburg. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. W. H. Haycock, of Washington, D. C.

The deceased was a consistent member of Liberty Baptist church and was a faithful and kind neighbor and the town will miss her, as many shared in her kindness to the unfortunate and needy.

The funeral services will be conducted at Liberty church to-morrow, Thursday afternoon at 4:30, and will be conducted by her old pastors Revs. Royall and Taylor, her present pastor being away from the county and could not be reached. The remains will be laid to rest in the family vault at Liberty cemetery.

Lumber Back to Normal.

LUMBER has reached a price-level where its value bears the true and proper proportion to the value of the products you farmers raise and sell. In other words, prices today on lumber are consistent with prices on farm products.

THERE'S NOTHING MYSTERIOUS about it—just the old law of supply and demand—and a willingness on our part to play fair with our customer friends by reducing our prices to a point where you can afford to buy.

RIGHT NOW your problem may be a barn, a shed or other building necessary to help you do your work better, more quickly or more economically. Or it may mean a new home, or repairing and remodeling the old one.

BRING YOUR PROBLEM TO US—Let us show you the facts. We have many plans and suggestions, some of which you can probably use, and our friendly counsel and assistance won't obligate you in any way.

Come in the first convenient day and let's talk it over.

The Origin of Mother's Day

THE thought of a special MOTHER'S DAY originated with Miss Anna Jarvis of Philadelphia in 1908, who was requested to get up a special service for the church which she attended.

The movement grew to such an extent that on May 8th, 1914, a joint resolution was approved at Washington, calling upon the President to request the governmental officials and the people of the United States to display the U. S. Flag as a public expression of our love and reverance for the mothers of our country.

The second Sunday in May was designated by President Wilson, and has been nationally observed since that date.

"The service rendered to us by by the American Mothers is the greatest source of the country's strength."

"God could not, be everywhere, and therefore He made mothers."
